

How to survive moving

Among the abundance of the moving companies operating on the market of logistics sometimes it is rather difficult to find a really reliable one. The most important thing you should remember is to take an active position and to collect as much information as possible. The more information you can collect, the easier it will be to choose a really good moving company.

Today the website became the hallmark of any moving company, the source where you can learn the history of the company, its age, «scope», the range of services provided, etc. Additional information can be found in the specialized press and on the Internet portals dedicated to moving. It would be useful to read reviews and testimonials, look into the so called «black lists». After overviewing all of these sources you can make your own opinion about the moving company, it's specifics, and find out whether this company is trustworthy or not.

If you estimate company's review as positive, Edmonton movers consider it necessary to have a conversation with the manager to confirm in company's reliability. If this conversation was complete and competent, your upcoming move will be successful and comfortable. Don't be afraid to seem a little bit boring and persuasive, don't be afraid to ask a lot of questions. Professional mover will be polite with the client and answer all his questions.

Moving companies in Calgary have prepared a list of questions that will help you to avoid common mistakes in choosing a moving company.

What to ask

Why it is important

- | | |
|---|--|
| Does the company provide a free costs assessment? | Costs assessment on the beginning stage gives the possibility to foreseen the whole cost of the moving, as well as to compare moving companies prices. Free assessment service is desirable. |
| What is the final cost of your moving and how is it formed? | Ask about the price of each service included in the list of the moving, so you'll know exactly what you pay for. |
| What are the terms and procedure of the payment? | Ask whether there is a pre-payment. As a rule, reliable companies practice such form of payments. |

Will the initial cost of the moving be fixed? The price should be fixed until the end of the moving, excluding any kind of extra payments.

Does the company work in the evening hours, on weekends and holidays? Is there a margin on such working hours? Professional companies work without breaks and days off, their main thing objective is to be useful to the client and be able to address all his needs.

Does the company has its own staff? Reliable moving companies have their own staff. Moreover they provide trainings to their employees.

What are the packaging material used by the company? Respectable company will offer the client a variety of packaging materials of high quality.

Does the cargo transport of the company correspond with the requirements of the valuable property transportation? You should know that motor vehicles body must be covered with shock absorbing material (to cushion the blows of vibration during transportation) and be equipped with on-board brackets for furniture and other stuff must be fixed.

How long will the entire moving process last? Experienced company will correctly plan your moving to optimize the terms of its implementation.

What rules are applied in the case of postponement or cancellation of moving? You should always have the possibility to cancel or postpone the moving for a few days before.

Does the company provides the insurance of property? If the insurance is provided it's a good sign of company's reliability. Ask about the conditions of moving property insurance.

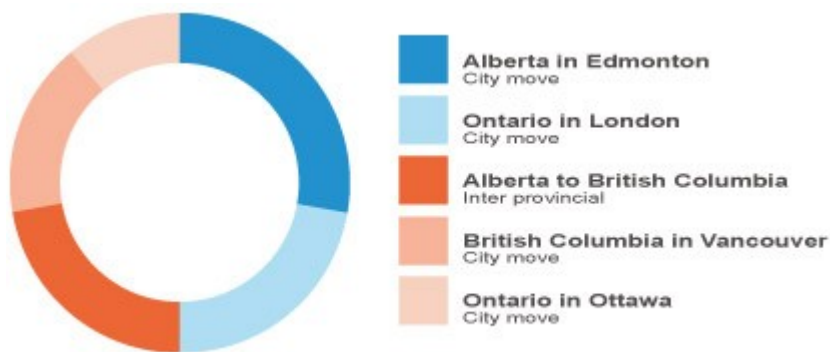

Are there any recommendations about moving simplification? Experienced moving companies will certainly share tips and secrets to organize a moving with minimal losses and maximum comfort.

Grande prairie movers believe that office moving is more responsible than the apartment. It is often even more complicated because of the expensive office equipment, a large number of office furniture and decorative fragile parts of the interior. Besides, office relocation is complicated by the fact that a large number of office employees preventing the work of the loaders. Office relocation shouldn't have negative affect on the company's activity. That is the main reason why it should be organized more thoroughly.

According to the office moving statistics, a company that employs about a hundred people, conducts a team of movers from ten to fifteen specialists. Moving company works according to the following scheme: the first team of the workers concentrate their efforts on disassembling and packing then take the furniture out of the rooms to the elevators, or stairwells. The second team takes the race on the ground floor getting the stuff ready for loading. The third team loads the stuff into a truck and makes the fixing. Moving companies reduce significantly the time, which is needed for moving process, thus moving can be completed in one to two days. According to statistics data the most requested moving destinations in Canada are the following:

If you are interested in office moving apply for moving quotes in Fort McMurray.

Back to Home Page